1. [] Talked with Claude J. Desautels in the White House concerning the case of [] I indicated that there were complications in this case which had arisen after he had been put in process for a surplus personnel program. Further, the individual was not well and although the new problems were most serious in order to assist the man we were simply going to continue the processing and he would be terminated probably next month. It was agreed that I would talk to Helen Tomascik in Representative Daniel J. Flood's office to acquaint her with the background of the case.
